7 Foreign Jewelers Want To Start Business In Armenia

ARMENPRESS – 30/10/2013

YEREVAN - Dozens of entrepreneurs from Thailand, Switzerland, Canada, the United States, the Russian Federation, Lebanon, and Turkey want to start jewelry business within the framework of jewelry free trade zone. The Chairman of the Armenian Jewelry Association Gagik Gevorgyan stated this in a conversation with "Armenpress".

Among other things the Chairman of the Armenian Jewelry Association Gagik Gevorgyan underscored that the registration of enterprises and private entrepreneurs for the jewelry free trade zone will launch in November and will be over two or three months later.

In addition Gagik Gevorgyan emphasized that some of the foreign jewelers expressed the wish to start business in Armenia after the participation in the "Yerevan Show - 2013" exhibition.

At the exhibition, which has become a traditional event, presented are world famous companies manufacturing jewelry and watches, jewelers, suppliers of jewelry from Armenia and from two dozen countries from all over the world. Over 140 buyers have arrived to Armenia to participate in the Exhibition, which according to the organizers, is a good opportunity for the local companies to find new markets for their products.

President Serzh Sargsyan and Mrs. Rita Sargsyan attended the opening of the Yerevan Show-2013 International Jewelry Exhibition at the Karen Demirjian Sport and Concert Complex. The event was being held on the next day after the Jeweler's National Day holiday established by the decree of the Government of Armenia.

With regard to the events organized in the framework of the Exhibition, President Sargsyan was informed that there is an intention to organize a conference entitled the "Current Situation in the Jewelry Production: Problems and Prospects." At the Conference, the Chairman of the World Armenian Jewelers Association (AJA) Gagik Gevorgian will present Union's project on establishing in Yerevan a jewelry free trade zone. At the Conference introduced will be the newly established the AJA's research Fund of the Armenian Jewelers.

Held by AJA for the third consecutive year in the Armenian capital, Yerevan Show has already become a well-known and respected exhibition which traditionally attracts the most prominent jewelry companies and professionals.

The Yerevan Show initiated by AJA is evolving into an effective international business and relationship platform, aimed at further developing the jewelry industry in Armenia. The essential idea is for Yerevan Show to become one of the major regional jewelry exhibitions and gain international status. Today, one can safely assume, our annual show is the most capable means for multilateral cooperation. Yerevan Show October 2013 will provide you with many benefits and a great opportunity to promote your product, expand your market and meet buyers from accommodating them a chartered plane CIS (Russia, Kazakhstan, Ukraine, Belarus, etc), Europe, north America, UAE, India, the Middle East and Gulf countries
